The ambition of the organizers of the international scientific conference „The security forces of the state as guarantor of national and international security“ – Inaugural Edition is to create a platform within the framework of the scientific event in question to identify, discuss, and resolve current issues accompanying the work of members of the Police Force and members of other security forces in fulfilling the priority task of each state, such as national and international security.

The importance and contribution of the international scientific conference lies in the creation of a professional discourse of representatives of legal science, educational institutions and erudite experts from practice, aiming at the formulation of conclusions and proposals relevant in the field of national and international security in the context of the activities of the state's security forces.

The focus of the conference:

- Historical and legal aspects of security forces
- Anchoring the state security forces in the legal order
- The principle of legality and proportionality of security forces activities
- Activities of the state security forces aimed at guaranteeing national and international security
- Human rights dimension of the activities of security forces members
- Protection of the rights of members of the Police Force and members of other security forces
- Modernization of security forces (technical and personnel aspects)
- Current security threats at the national level
- Current security threats on the European continent
- International security organizations
- Radicalization and other serious threats within the security forces
- Education and lifelong learning of security forces members
