connected with an exhibition on the history of national minorities

“THE STATUS OF MINORITIES BEFORE AND AFTER THE ACCESSION TO THE EUROPEAN UNION “

which will be held on October 27th, 2016 at the Academy of the Police Force in Bratislava

doc. JUDr. Klaudia Marczyová, PhD.

Head of the Public Law Department

The aim of the conference is to indicate the development of the issue of minorities before and after the accession of the countries to the European Union along with the development of the legal framework for minorities, their rights and existence on the territory of the European Union countries. Attention will also be paid to the role and function of the police with regard to minorities.

New findings and results from the scientific research task No. 204/2014 APZ will be presented in cooperation with the participants from the Faculty of Law of Charles University and experts from the police in order to acquire new theoretical and practical knowledge for further study of the issue. The primary subject of the conference will be the status of national minorities.

The focus of the scientific conference:

- 1) Minority Policy (legal status) in the Slovak Republic and other EU countries before the accession to the European Union
- 2) Minority Policy (legal status) in the Slovak Republic and other EU countries after the accession to the European Union
- 3) The status of national minorities in the history of European countries
- 4) Local government and minorities
- 5) Police and national minorities
- 6) Current issues of the minority policy in the European Union
- 7) The status of the Slovak national minority in European countries
- 8) State security policy concerning national minorities
- 9) Institutional protection of the rights of citizens belonging to national minorities
- 10) The impact of current migration on the status of minorities in Europe
