In: Bratislavské právnické fórum 2019 [electronic document] : legality and admissibility of evidence in criminal proceedings : collection of papers from the international academic conference / Szakács, Andrea [Compiler, editor] ; Hlinka, Tibor [Compiler, editor] ; Ondicová, Magdaléna [Reviewer] ; Viktoryová, Jana [Reviewer]. - 1st ed. - Bratislava (Slovakia) : Comenius University in Bratislava. Law Faculty of Charles University, 2019. - (Symposia, colloquia, conferences) - ISBN 978-80-7160-520-1, pp. 126-131 [online] ID: 949945 The published paper concerns the procedure of the police officer in the preparatory proceedings in the framework of the legality of obtaining evidence, and in the above mentioned paper the obtaining of evidence and its legality is also explained using a model situation. This paper has a contribution to the application practice and therefore the author has taken the liberty to classify the scientific study in category A.
2.	V2 MASÁR KUPKOVÁ, K., Combating Money Laundering. In Theoretical and Applied Problems of the Investigation of Criminal Offences. Proceedings of scientific papers published by the Department of Investigation. 2025, pp. 21–30. LACA, Martin; KUPKOVÁ MASÁR, Katarína; CIKHART, Michal. Theoretical and Applied Problems of the Investigation of Criminal Offences. Proceedings of scientific papers published by the Department of Investigation. Bratislava: Academy of the Police Force in Bratislava, 2025, 144 p. ISBN 978-80-8293-047-7. The published contribution deals with the issue of the legalization of proceeds from criminal activity (money laundering) under the conditions of Slovak criminal law, as well as in the context of European and international legislation. Attention is focused on defining the elements of the criminal offence pursuant to Sections 233 and 233a of the Criminal Code and on analysing the individual forms and methods of its commission. The paper also addresses the methodology of investigating this criminal offence, including procedural acts, inter-institutional cooperation, and a case study of the legalization of proceeds from criminal activity committed through negligence. This contribution represents a benefit for applied practice; therefore, the author decided to include the scientific study in Category A.
3.	V2 MASÁR KUPKOVÁ, K., A Selected Procedure within the Framework of Accelerated Investigation of Drug-Related Criminal Activity.
