[IVOR, Jaroslav (50%) - DRUGDA, Juraj (50%)] The aim of the article is to provide an analysis of the current migration crisis and its negative impact on the Schengen area in relation to the threat to its fundamental principles. In this sense, the authors approximate the set of principles of the Schengen area allowing the full application of a wide range of freedoms for the citizens of the European Union and the threat to the peaceful functioning of the area of freedom, security and justice to the uncontrollable influx of illegal migrants. Equal attention is paid to the origin of the migration crisis, i.e. its origins and development and the associated escalation of security threats on the territory of the Schengen area. There is also a view of the solutions implemented to the migration crisis and the recommendations of the authors in this regard. According to the criteria of the Scientific Council of the Academy of the Police Force in Bratislava determining the segmentation of outputs, it is a scientific study published in a foreign journal, which deals with topical
